

Stations for ScoutsBSA and Cub Scouts

Compass Bearing

ScoutsBSA: All members of the patrol sight on an object and report collectively on its bearing; and lay off a bearing and report the object on the bearing. This event may also require a patrol to use a compass to orient a topographic map.

Cub Scouts: This activity will be age appropriate.

Fire Lighting and Water Boiling

ScoutsBSA: The patrol is timed in laying and lighting a fire and using it to boil water in a standard container. Bonus points for lighting the fire without matches, e.g. with a flint and steel, magnifying glass, or bow drill. Patrols are responsible for bringing the needed supplies.

Cub Scouts: Fire building and lighting with adult/parent help. Cubs will not be boiling water.

First Aid: Splint and Transport

ScoutsBSA: Patrol required to care for a casualty with a broken leg; after splinting, place the casualty correctly on sled for transport. Patrols are responsible for bringing the needed supplies.

Cub Scouts: This activity will be age appropriate and will not be involving transport.

Knots and lashing

ScoutsBSA: Scouts tie knots and show they know how to use them. Patrol demonstrates lashings in the construction of something simple, such as a tripod. Patrols are responsible for bringing the needed supplies.

Cub Scouts: Cub Scouts will participate in this activity.

Sled Balance

ScoutsBSA: Assemble two to three wood skids into a rigid platform and lay it over a large diameter log. The Patrol has to get on the platform with their sled and balance the platform so that neither side or ends touch the ground. Points can be given for establishing balance and for how long they keep it balanced. Skids and log will be supplied.

Cub Scouts: Cub Scouts will not be involved in this activity.

Toxic waste (Reece Wolfe)

ScoutsBSA: Remove the toxic waste from its location using all team members.

Cub Scouts: an alternate activity may be provided.

Disabilities awareness (DJ Dickey)

ScoutsBSA: Navigate various obstacle courses being disabled in manner chosen by station master.

Cub Scouts: This activity will be age appropriate for the Cub Scouts.
