Citizenship in the World	My intent is to cover most of the requirements for the merit badge during the class. I want to make this class a lively discussion that pertains to current Geopolitical and World topics. A discussion on world governments and philosophies will also be given. My discussions will be largely based upon the merit badge booklet; however, I will not follow it exactly. I would like to have the participants discuss each of the aspects of requirement 3b in small groups. If time should run short on the class, I will cut out requirement 3 b. The participants can show me their work during the signing of the merit badge sheets to get credit. So, if you want to make sure to receive a completed merit badge, come prepared with 3b already done and ready to discuss with your fellow scouts. Another thing that might be helpful with the discussions is to watch an international news broadcast the week before class-- BBC or Sky News should suffice for this. Please read through the merit badge booklet as well for general reference. Prior to Class: 3b, Classroom Requirements: 1, 2, 3a, 4a, 4b, 5, 6, and 7. After Merit Badge College: None.
